

JAZBA – THEATRE Group

1) ABOUT JAZBA

The institution which gave wings to dreams of many creative minds was initiated by Anurag Das Mathur with his fellow college mates in the year 2006. Jazba has showcased its talent in street and stage plays for the past ten years and has set a milestone. The evergreen and energetic street plays like "BHOOKH", "CHOTA MUHH BADI BAAT", "DUR DES SE AAYEGA KOI", "NONSENSE" are still remembered among people and are appreciated. Stage plays like "TAULIYE", "KIRAYEDAAR", "ROOM NO.- 323", and it's new production "BALI AUR SHAMBHU" add up to the achievements of this glorious institution.

With smart work, discipline and determination, this group works day and night with the motive to pass on the same "JAZBA" to the forth coming generations.

2) ABOUT SAGAR NAGPAL MEMORIAL NUKKAD NATAK COMPETITION (SNMNNC)

Jazba Theatre Group lost its beloved member, Sagar Nagpal on 11th February, 2011. Sagar was one of the team's finest actors. He held the entire fervor of the team and kept everyone around him happy. The loss was huge but the team thought to uplift the ambiance and came out with the best way of honouring his memory. This was done by initiating SAGAR NAGPAL MEMORIAL NUKKAD NATAK COMPETITION in order to fulfill his dreams and keep his spirit alive within us.

SNMNNC started in 2011 and is considered to be one of the most prestigious theatre festivals all over Delhi University Theatre Circuit.

It is a festival which provides a platform to over 300 artists in over 15 teams to showcase their talents in front of an audience as enormous as 5000 to 8000 people who attend the event.

3) MEDIA COVERAGE

In the recent history, Jazba Theatre Group has received positive promotion and appreciation from mainstream media coverage houses like DD national, News Nation, Hindustan Times etc during its annual cultural festival, Sagar Nagpal Memorial Nukkad Natak Competition and is proud to share future collaborations with them.

4) ACHIEVEMENTS

Someone has rightly said that hardwork and dedication towards a goal never go in vein. Jazba Theatre Group has worked enthusiastically day and night to achieve it's motives. From breath taking performances within Delhi University to eye opening plays amongst general public, it has won hearts. It has not only achieved people's believes but also have trophies from various parts of the country.

The following are some achievements made by Jazba Theatre Group:

- 1st in both Stage and Street Play competition for their productions "KIRAYEDAAR" and "DUR DES SE AAYEGA KOI" respectively in IIT Guwahati.
- 1st in IIT Ahemdabad for their stage play production "Bali Aur Shambhu".

- 2nd in IIT Delhi for their stage play "KIRAYEDAAR".
- TAPAN KOSH was awarded best actor for our stage production "BALI AUR SHAMBHU" by Sahitya Kala Parishad in Mahavidyala Natya Samaroh.
- ASHISH KUMAR received two best actors for our street play production "NONSENSE" from Kalindi College and Amity University.

5) STAGE PRODUCTION

Play Name : Bali Aur Shambhu

Written by : Manav Kaul

Directed by : Pawan Chauhan

Synopsis:

Is old age that phase in a person's life, where he must simply relive his past glories, retrospect his actions and waste away precious time, awaiting his final moments? Or can it also be a time to build new relationships and cross all things off one's bucket list? Set in an old-age home, "Bali aur Shambhu" is the story of an unlikely friendship which blossoms between two completely distinct personalities. Shambhu, an irascible man who visits his dream world repeatedly and struggles with keeping up with his reality, now has to come around to accommodate the gregarious Bali, who is forced to find a refuge in the old age home because his family doesn't want him. Everything, ranging from Shambhu's misconception about his son-in-law, Shubhankar to his love for his daughter - Titli, seems to tumble down with time.

Photos:

